What is the Medicare Shared Savings Program?

As discussed in the FAQ regarding types of ACOs, the Medicare Shared Savings Program (MSSP), is a program designed by CMS to help improve the quality and reduce the cost of providing healthcare to Medicare beneficiaries. The program aims to do this by incentivizing the parties involved in providing patient care by rewarding those who are able to help provide higher quality care for a lower cost.